

Healthcare in Germany

Headed to Germany for the big international football tournament this summer? Here are a few things to keep in mind:

Hospitals are the primary destinations to go in case of a health event or medical emergency

Some hospitals may accept credit cards, travellers should expect to pay cash for services and medications

Dial 112 for fire and ambulance services; 110 for police

Know how your health benefits work while in another country

Food and tap water are considered safe

Healthcare

© 2024 United HealthCare Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Products and services may be limited or excluded by applicable law and are subject to availability. The service marks contained in this literature are owned by UnitedHealth Group Incorporated and its affiliated companies, many of which are registered and pending service marks in the United States and in various countries worldwide, except where otherwise noted. Assistance services are provided by or through UnitedHealth Group, Inc., and affiliates under the UnitedHealthcare Global brand. The information provided herein is for informational purposes only as part of your health plan and should not be construed as medical advice. Please discuss with your doctor how the information provided is right for you. UnitedHealth Group and its affiliates do not and cannot guarantee clinical outcomes. Supports compliance with U.S. and other applicable laws and regulations. Non-insurance services are provided by a separate affiliate of UnitedHealth Group Incorporated under the UnitedHealthcare Global brand. This form is not an application for insurance. Insurance coverage only begins once a completed application has been received and approved by UnitedHealthcare Global. UnitedHealthcare Global is not responsible for the content of third-party websites and links to such websites do not imply recommendation, approval or endorsement of that website.

5/24 SAL-GS-1869652 -2-NAM